Notes

1. Under present law, any lump sum death benefits payable under the scheme at the discretion of the Trustee directs to your beneficiaries can usually be paid without any tax liability. Your beneficiaries are defined in the scheme Rules or other official documentation governing the scheme and may include your family, civil partners, other relatives, dependants and any person or organisation (e.g. charity) that you nominate in writing to the Trustee.
2. You should tell the Trustee who you wish to be treated as your beneficiary(ies) by filling in the form. If you do not complete the form, the Trustee will allocate benefits in their absolute discretion and those people you wish to benefit may not receive any benefits.
3. You should always keep your nominations up to date following any change(s) in your personal circumstances. You can change any of your nominations whenever you want. To do this you should complete a new Expression of Wish Form.
4. Although the form allows space for up to 4 nominations, there is no restriction on the number of people and/or organisations you can nominate. Please specify your nominations in a letter to the Trustee if the form does not meet your needs. It is important to state for each nominated beneficiary what proportion of the total lump sum you wish them to receive. Please ensure the proportions add up to 100%.
5. The Trustee will give every consideration to your wishes before paying any lump sums on death, however to ensure that the payment can be made without any UK inheritance tax liability arising, your nomination is not legally binding on them.
6. The information you provide will be used for the purpose of administering benefits under the scheme. It will be held, in strict confidence, by or on behalf of the Trustee of the scheme.
7. A tax liability will arise if payment of the lump sum death benefit(s) either exceeds your available Lifetime Allowance or if you have already used up your Lifetime Allowance.
