

AUGUST 2021

OUR SCHEME ACTUARY IS CHANGING

The Trustee have recently undertaken a review of their actuarial adviser and are pleased to announce the appointment of a new Scheme Actuary, Martin Potter.

Martin is a Partner of Hymans Robertson and Fellow of the Institute and Faculty of Actuaries with over 25 years' actuarial experience. He has extensive experience of advising trustees of large pension schemes with financial services sponsors.

Martin and his actuarial team at Hymans Robertson will be working closely with the Trustee, ZPen team and other advisers to ensure the continued smooth running of the ZPen Scheme.

As Scheme Actuary Martin takes over from the previous Scheme Actuary Susanna Morran (Barnett Waddingham) as joint data controller under the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR).
